Terms and conditions of the empanelled advocates:

- The Advocate shall not advise any party or accept any case against ESIC in which he/she appeared or is likely to be called upon to appear or advise which is likely to affect or lead to litigation against ESIC.
- Timely appearance of the Advocate to contest the cases for ESIC in the Court is a must and his/her absence in the Court will not be accepted.
- ESIC sends the information to the panel advocates through email regarding entrustment of a case and after receiving the email, it is duty of the Panel Advocates to collect the brief/copy of petition along with assignment letter from the concerned office of ESIC at the earliest.
- ESIC is free to engage any advocate of its own choice and an empanelled Advocate shall make no claim that he/she alone would be entrusted with ESIC's legal matter.
- Refusal by any advocate to accept any work without any reasonable cause (e.g. on grounds of conflict of interest) may entail removal of such advocate from the panel, forthwith without waiting for the empanelment period to expire.
- If failure to attend a case without reasonable cause may entail removal of such advocate from the panel forthwith without for the empanelment period to expire.
- The advocates shall accept the terms and conditions of the empanelment as determined by ESIC, Regional Office, Vijayawada from time to time.
- In order to ensure that there is effective check on the cases being conducted, the Advocates on the Panel must report the status of the cases after each date of hearing. Failure to submit a status report will be grounds for de-empanelment.
- In cases where on the request of the Union of India, Ministry of Labour & Employment have also to be represented, no extra fee shall be paid to the Advocate to watch and safeguard the interests of Union of India, Ministry of Labour & Employment.

- It shall be the responsibility of the empanelled Advocate to keep ESIC informed and updated on all important developments in the designated cases, dates of hearing, order of the court on the date of its pronouncement, supplying copy of orders/judgment etc.
- Furnish monthly statement about the cases represented by him/her before the various Courts and their outcomes.
- When any case attended by him/her is decided against the Corporation, the Advocate concerned must give considered opinion regarding the reasons for such adverse order and the advisability of filing an appeal from such a decision in a period not later than 5 working days of the order (Kuchha Copy).
